

Travel to and in Seattle

Seattle is served by the Sea-Tac International Airport (<http://www.portseattle.org/seatac/>) through which many different carriers operate. Seattle is also a destination for Amtrak Railways (www.amtrak.com) and Greyhound Bus (www.greyhound.com).

Car rental

Fourteen rental car companies operate from Sea-Tac International Airport (<http://www.portseattle.org/seatac/ground/rentalcars.shtml>) and there are many rental car companies located in Seattle.

Airport Shuttle

Shuttle Express (www.shuttleexpress.com) offers door-to-door service in a shared van to and from Sea-Tac International Airport. One-way trip to downtown hotels is $23, rides must be scheduled in advance.

The Grey Line Downtown Airporter (<http://www.graylinesseattle.com/airportexpress1.cfm>) offers one-way ($10.25) and round-trip ($17) service to major downtown hotels. Bus leaves Sea-Tac International Airport every ½ hour between 5:30am and 11pm.

Metro Transit

<http://transit.metrokc.gov>

- Route #194 provides daily express service between downtown Seattle and Sea-Tac International Airport.
- Route #18 provides daily service between downtown Seattle (First Ave) and the Kadampa Buddhist Temple in the Ballard neighborhood of Seattle.
- Route #44 provides daily service between the University District and Ballard. The #44 bus drops off on NW Market St in Ballard, from which the #18 bus or a seven-block walk can be taken to the Kadampa Buddhist Temple.